

TLDG Online extends West Point's military leadership lessons and TLDG's proven learning process to a virtual setting that complements our onsite programs.

Through this online experience, you gain exposure to our same impressive faculty who develop and lead unique courses only available through TLDG Online.

★ NEW TLDG Online Course! ★

Leading High-Performing Teams

Colonel (Retired) Thomas "Tom" Magness facilitates this course with leaders of teams in mind to learn how to achieve critical business objectives by maximizing your team's success. The tools and principles of leadership shared here have the power to help your teams go from good to great. This course breaks down the actions of successful leaders in the phases of planning, preparation, execution, and learning. You will learn successful U.S. Army leadership and teambuilding principles and tools such as Leader's Intent, Back Brief, Situational Awareness, and After Action Reviews that can be applied to any organization to help build and sustain team successes.

★ Leading with Character and Competence & Leading with Purpose ★

These two courses, developed by Brigadier General (Retired) Rebecca "Becky" Halstead, are designed to introduce you to the concept of leadership and validate the leadership philosophy that a "better me is a better we." The courses provide leaders at all organizational levels the opportunity to closely examine your own leadership DNA and explore personal principles that guide your decision making and, ultimately, effectiveness as a leader.

CLIENT TESTIMONIALS ★

"The TLDG Online Leadership Program far exceeded my expectations! I was unsure of how effective an online leadership program could be, but was impressed with how interactive the program is and how well it was presented."

~ Mike McAbee, Department Manager
Sales and Leadership Training

Mercedes-Benz

"At the start of the program, I was unsure... if our participants would be able to maintain their course work in addition to their day jobs and home life, but that concern was quickly diminished. I was impressed with...how well it was presented in small bites so that participants could maintain their homework assignments and activities. There was genuine excitement and responsiveness to the course material, which was designed for every type of leader. We were able to pull together 30 leaders from various locations within our organization to focus on their own development, which alone strengthened our team unit...We are looking forward to expanding to other leaders at Atlantic Broadband soon."
